The Best of Car Talk

“For 30 years, Car Talk was the best way to ‘waste a perfectly good hour’ of your weekend.” – *The Verge

Car Talk was NPR’s beloved, hilarious and fast-paced call-in radio program hosted by Tom and Ray Magliozzi, or “Click and Clack.” The iconic duo took the fear out of car repair and found the fun in engine failure for the automotive enthusiast and the confused car owner alike.

The Peabody Award-winning program continues to make listeners laugh through The Best of Car Talk – classic episodes re-released on NPR stations and as a weekly podcast.
